Typing Format Body text: Verdana 10 pt font Main heading: Verdana 14pt bold Secondary headings: Verdana 12pt bold
Numerical Style Follow AP style for numbers (write out numbers ten and below; for larger numbers, use numerals) Use numerals according to an organization's practice. Decimalization should not exceed two places in textual material. Example: 1.23 percent (only two spaces are used after the period) Other examples: 21st century (828) 227-7133 $1,000,000 a 34-year-old woman 1980's 80 percent 16.9 percent
Capitalization / Hyphenation/ Italics/ Possessives/ Punctuation / Spelling Follow AP style for hyphens, commas, dashes and all plurals Foreign words: if it is a term the reader might not know, use quotation marks Musical and literary genres are not capitalized, unless they refer to a proper noun According to AP style, when using commas to separate elements in a series, do NOT include the last comma before the coordinating conjunction. Example: It is a place to relax, get away and do research. (There is no comma between

the last two elements)

If a title or abbreviation that uses a period comes at the end of a sentence, only use a single period. Example: They are open until 4 p.m. (No extra period is needed to end the sentence)

Time of day: Use numerical figures, and use a colon to separate hours from minutes. List time using a.m. and p.m. Example: 3:30 p.m.

Capitalize official titles when used directly before an individual's name. If commas set off the title or name, do not capitalize.
